SAVOUR A FEAST

OF TOGETHERNESS

In the heart of Bali, where tradition binds communities, one custom stands timeless—Megibung, a feast of togetherness born in the 17th century under the reign of King I Gusti Anglurah Ketut Karangasem. Originating in Karangasem and later flourishing in Ubud, Megibung is more than just sharing food—it's a celebration of unity, where meals, laughter, and stories are shared. This beloved tradition spread from Karangasem to Ubud, where its spirit blossomed.

In modern times, Megibung has evolved, finding its place in contemporary dining while preserving its essence. Whether in grand settings or intimate gatherings, it offers a taste of Balinese heritage through rich spices and its communal spirit.

Inspired by this tradition, Khastana Hadi Luxury Countryside Villas presents the in-villa seafood grill, where guests savour Balinese-spiced seafood in a shared experience. With a private chef preparing the meal in the tranquil villa patio, it's an unforgettable blend of flavour and togetherness.
